Hear From Our Confirmed Buyers!

“

I'm looking forward to the scheduled meets on mutual request and overall flexibility in arranging meetings to source for hotels, venues and itinerary ideas for our group travel and MICE clients. I hope to meet new contacts for future partnerships.

TQ Travel Quality SA, Portugal
Alexandra Henriques, Marketing Director | Head of Operations

Virtual events like IT&CMA and CTW APAC allow us to curate our own experiences through a combination of knowledge, networking, one-on-one meetings and other programme activities offered. I believe I will learn new trends following this pandemic and continue to connect with the community virtually.

Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry, India
Allroy Augustine Collaco, Assistant Secretary General

I believe that attending this event will help boost our expansion in the Asian market. My priority is to meet as many partners and establish good connections. Am particularly interested in the new mini roadshows as well as the MICE seminars and Corporate Travel conferences.

Calatorescu, Romania
Andreas Sorin Suci, CEO

“

The one-to-one business meets with Asia-Pacific suppliers are my priority as we would like to re-start on getting updates for upcoming projects and businesses planned for 2021.

Smile Holiday, Indonesia
Bambang Hartono, CEO

“

Events like IT&CMA and CTW APAC that have managed to go virtual give me hope that the industry is still very much alive. Connecting to the professionals across the MICE industry during this event will be a key part of our eventual recovery and I believe I'll meet the right people to commit business. My top anticipated event highlights are the new mini roadshows, brand showcase presentations by suppliers and the one-on-one scheduled meets by mutual request.

Vanity Travel & Tours, Philippines
Celia Magno Ranara, Owner & President

We specialise in customised and special interest tours and are looking forward to meeting new suppliers such as hotels, DMCs, and attractions in anticipation when travel recovers. The pandemic would have paralyzed our ability to explore new properties and destinations if not for virtual events like IT&CMA and CTW APAC. To me, the one-to-one pre-scheduled meetings with sellers and brand showcase presentations are the most useful in preparing for business in the future.

Dhyshey Travel And Tours, Philippines
Dhyshey Halili, General Manager

“

Would like to understand how suppliers are incorporating tech and virtual systems as part of their new MICE solutions and offerings.

Sanchez Becchi MICE, Argentina
Diego Martin Sanchez Becchi, Executive Director

“

The virtual exhibition is a unique and new experience for me, so I'm keeping an open mind. Most of all, I hope to meet and exchange contacts with fellow colleagues and industry professionals to explore cooperation possibilities.

Mazi Travel & Events, Greece
George Papakonstantinou, Area Sales Manager

“

I'm looking forward to reconnecting with old friends and meeting partners in the industry to find inspiration and relevant learnings to help our Myanmar plan for a new chapter. Discovering what the new normal is and how incentive travel will evolve in this recovery. In addition to the business meetings, the brand showcase presentation, mini roadshows and daily networking sessions are on the top of my attend list.

Croton Travel, Myanmar
Hein Thant, Director

“

Asia, especially Thailand is a key market for us. I look forward to updates from MICE and DMC suppliers and fellow buyers to seek partnership and collaboration into this new future.

Hesen Al Musafer Travel & Tourism, Saudi Arabia
Khaled Abdo Qaid Naji, Tours Manager

“

The 24/7 virtual exhibition provides anytime access and convenience to exploring the participating suppliers at this show. I hope to discover new destinations and suppliers that appeal to our Indian clients for wedding and social events. F&B, entertainment services, venues with history and culture and suppliers of authentic local experiences are important facets for them.

Green Chili Events & Entertainment, India
Kunwarjeet Singh, Managing Director

“

We're introducing our corporate travel program within 12 APAC locations (12 countries). This conference is thus a great starting point for me to get acquainted with suppliers offering services for transient business travel, and ensure all our business needs are covered in the end-to-end booking process. I'm eager to learn about innovations being introduced here and share them within our global program. I also look forward to learning from other corporate buyers about their travel programs and make meaningful long term connections.

FrieslandCampina Corporate Centre, Netherlands
Kyra Dieteren, Global Travel Manager

“

My priorities are to restructure and revive our business while keeping employees engaged and vendors motivated. Being able to offer new ideas for event hosting is also key. I hope to find answers to these challenges at IT&CMA and CTW APAC virtual by learning how incumbents are adapting and their new initiatives, and meeting new digital players who can help us make a difference in the industry.

Moveinsync Technology Solutions Pvt Ltd, India
Manish Raj, Vice President - Global Sales & New Initiatives

“

This will be my first experience with IT&CMA and CTW APAC. I'm eager to learn about the new trends surfacing in Asia after the pandemic and how this will shape MICE business in 2021 from both experts and fellow delegate peers. The contacts I'll gain at this event will be valuable in planning for future business in this region.

Worldwide Travel Destination Management Ltd, United Kingdom
Marcela Fojtova, Reservation Supervisor

“

All the virtual programme highlights look interesting! Would like to learn about the new possibilities and options from suppliers for our events and incentive clients.

Luxury ID Travel, Brazil
Marcia Miranda, Director

“

I look forward to renewing negotiations with suppliers and sourcing for new products and services for our luxury clientele.

A&A Incentives, Meetings & Conferences, LLC., United States
Mario Scozia, Executive Director

“

The business matching and meets remain the priority for me, along with the new virtual segments including the 24/7 exhibition and mini roadshows to enhance my connection with suppliers.

Al Awael Travel & Tourism, Lebanon
Nancy Bandaly, Executive Director

“

Sourcing for new suppliers and learning about the supply and demand landscape trends in the new normal are my key priorities. I believe that IT&CMA and CTW APAC virtual is timely to explore new opportunities to re-start our corporate travel plans.

PCTS Co., Ltd., Thailand
Pracha Trakarnsilp, Managing Director

“

Asia-Pacific suppliers especially DMCs and ground operators who can assist us with day-trips, multi-day tours and attractions of Asian destinations are on the top of my procurement list. Am also looking forward to learning what other buyers like myself are planning for during the Buyer Procurement Showcase.

Liberty Holidays, Nepal
Ram Bahadur Ghale, CEO

“

We have a ready congress that incorporates an exhibition of food companies. I hope to meet suitable partners and contacts that can support us for this upcoming event.

International College of Nutrition, India
Ram Singh, Founder

“

Luxury, experiential travel (FIT) have good potential prospects in the new normal of MICE business. I would like to explore how DMCs, attractions and destinations can cater to this evolving trend.

Vasudha Travels Pvt Ltd, India
Sanjiv Poddar, Chief Executive Officer

“

I hope to meet new suitable properties and land operators for our upcoming MICE contracts. It is important to also be updated on businesses that continue to operate during and after this pandemic. The new buyer procurement showcase will give us an opportunity to understand how fellow buyers are coping and their plans forward.

Maven Experiences, India
Shahid Ayubi, Products Head

“

The new mini roadshow looks interesting. I'm looking forward to experience that as well as build partnerships, update my networks, discover promotions and new services offered by suppliers such as technology for hybrid meetings, to get a better idea of what the landscape for future events might look like.

Pacific Arena Pte Ltd, Singapore
Shermaine Tang, Senior Project Executive

“

We intend to re-visit collaboration possibilities with Asia-Pacific MICE destinations, venues and suppliers for the second part of 2021. Current sentiment with our clients indicate that incentive travel is expected to return by the autumn of next year. Being able to understand the present possibilities of partnership will guide us in planning for the year ahead.

Business Travel Club, Poland
Slawomir Bloch, President

“

Am particularly interested in sourcing for ideas, concepts and solutions for hybrid incentive offerings and unique event experiences.

Pacific Arena Pte Ltd, Singapore
Stanley Yew, MICE Sales

“

It will be interesting to discover how industry suppliers have adapted their solutions and offerings for this post-Covid era. Having a better understanding of the industry marketing trends at large and new travel concepts beyond domestic tourism, will enable me to plan for my business and our clients' into 2021.

Southern Travels Pvt Ltd, India
Sudhir Tuli, General Manager Sales and Contracting

“

We are starting to plan for our sales incentive trips in 2022 and 2023. This event is thus timely for us to explore suitable destinations and hotels.

Alcon Japan, Japan
Tomomi Kondo, Senior Meeting Planner

“

IT&CMA and CTW APAC is an event that I'm ever-ready to support, especially with their first virtual edition. In addition to the presentations at the brand showcase and buyer procurement sessions, I would like to meet with DMCs and destination CVBs to explore their new promotions and update my knowledge on the current marketing situation.
